Volunteer Support Program

We know that sometimes people need support to live their best life and are not always eligible for funded supports - we can help!

Multicap are leaders in disability support, providing individualised support, experiences and opportunities for more than 1800 customers across Victoria, Queensland and New South Wales.

Are you seeking support from a Multicap Volunteer?

Multicap Melbourne offers volunteer services to support you to continue to live independently through services like companionship, respite and home support.

About our volunteers

- All are over 18 and hold a current Working with Children check and NDIS Worker Screening Check
- Registered with Multicap and abide by our policies and procedures
- Supported by our Volunteer Coordinator.

What volunteers can do:

- ✓ Provide companionship
- ✓ Support you to visit your favourite places and help you to connect to your local community
- ✓ Run errands
- ✓ Support you to connect with family and friends
- ✓ Support parents, siblings and other family members
- ✓ Provide limited personal care and physical support for activities of daily living

What volunteers can't do:

- ✗ Replace NDIS funded support
- ✗ Medication administration
- ✗ Physical support (i.e transfers)
